Hillsdale College Hosts National Leadership Seminar

Prominent thinkers discuss “What is American Greatness” at February conference

Hillsdale College will host its first National Leadership Seminar of 2018 on Tuesday, February 20 and Wednesday, February 21. The conference, titled “What is American Greatness?” will feature lectures from thinkers, scholars and opinion leaders across a variety of disciplines.

Each year, Hillsdale College hosts its National Leadership Seminars in locations across the country to discuss political, cultural and economic issues of the day. More than 30,000 people have attended the events since they began in 1982. For more information on Hillsdale College’s National Leadership Seminars, click here.

The seminar is open to the media. To register, contact Emily Stack Davis at pr@hillsdale.edu or 517-607-2730.
