Hillsdale College President To Be Featured in Education Tele-Townhall

Dr. Larry P. Arnn to discuss excellence in K-12 education with radio host Hugh Hewitt

On Thursday, December 6, Hillsdale College president Larry P. Arnn will join nationally syndicated radio host Hugh Hewitt for a tele-townhall event titled “Leading a Return to Excellence in K–12 Education.” Dr. Arnn will share how Hillsdale’s Barney Charter School Initiative is leading the way to make classical education accessible to students across the nation.

The Barney Charter School Initiative trains the minds and improves the hearts of young people through a rigorous, classical education in the liberal arts and sciences, with instruction in the principles of moral character and civic virtue. The initiative has already established 20 schools in nine states and opens new schools each year.

Interested individuals are encouraged to call in to listen and submit questions. Pre-registration is required for those who would like to submit a question. Visit hillsdale.edu/townhall to register for more information.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 3.9 million.
