Hillsdale College Named Among Nation's Best by The Princeton Review

HILLSDALE, Mich. — The Princeton Review again named Hillsdale College among the top 390 institutions of higher education in the country and 151 in the Midwest. The 2025 rankings are based upon a survey of 168,000 students. Hillsdale College also ranked in the top ten in six subcategories and the top 20 in 14 subcategories related to academics and student life.

“Everything we do here at Hillsdale College is ordered toward building and sustaining a lively and rigorous academic culture,” said Christopher VanOrman, Hillsdale College provost. “The excellence and happiness of our students are a natural byproduct of this culture. We are always grateful when others recognize that.”

Most notably, Hillsdale College ranked first for “Most Religious Students,” second for “Friendliest Students,” and third for “Most Conservative Students.”

Some of Hillsdale's other highest rankings include:

- #14 Best Career Services
- #10 Best College Newspaper
- #16 Best College Radio Station
- #14 Best Quality of Life
- #10 Best Student Support and Counseling Services
- #13 Happiest Students
- #20 Most Accessible Professors
- #11 Most Engaged in Community Service
- #17 Most Politically Active Students
- #14 Pot's Not Hot
- #6 Their Students Love These Colleges

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent, nonsectarian, Christian liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 6.6 million.
