Hillsdale College Choral Scholars Program Announces Fall Schedule for Choral Evensong

HILLSDALE, Mich. — The Hillsdale College Choral Scholars Program will hold weekly Choral Evensong performances this fall. The choir will be led by Associate Professor of Music Timothy McDonnell. All performances will be held in Hillsdale College's Christ Chapel and are open to Hillsdale College faculty, staff, and students as well as the local community.

"The Chapel Choir is excited to continue this beautiful tradition of sacred music," McDonnell said. "Music has the power to inspire reverence and help us turn our attention from ourselves to God. Evensong is an opportunity for people from the college and the community to pray, reflect, and worship God together."

Choral evensong is a centuries-old traditional Anglican service that features scripture, choral music, and prayers. Hillsdale's weekly Choral Evensong services are led by the Hillsdale College Choral Scholars Program, the core of the Hillsdale College Chapel Choir.

"This season, we'll be emphasizing the sacred classics of choral music, including a sacred music concert focusing on Schubert and Jomelli," McDonnell said.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent, nonsectarian, Christian liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 6.6 million.
