Hillsdale College Announces 2025-2026 Fine Arts Events

This year's events include a performance by Ballet Hartford, a Choral Scholars concert celebrating the Nicene Creed, and the premiere of winning play in Hillsdale's inaugural playwriting competition.

HILLSDALE, Mich. — Hillsdale College has released its 2025-2026 Fine Arts Calendar, announcing another exciting year of exhibits, concerts, plays, and other fine arts events open to members of our local community.

This year's events include a performance by Ballet Hartford; a Choral Scholars concert celebrating the 1,700th anniversary of the Nicene Creed; and the premiere of the short play "I'm Not a Mourning Person" by Emily Griffith '25, the winner of Hillsdale's inaugural playwriting competition. Hillsdale will also host a variety of other music performances, art exhibits, concerts, and plays featuring Hillsdale students, faculty, and guest artists.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent, nonsectarian, Christian liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 6.8 million.
