Hillsdale College Online Courses Featured on the Robertson Family's Unashamed Podcast

Robertson family to dedicate weekly podcast episode to Hillsdale online course discussion starting August 29

HILLSDALE, Mich. — Hillsdale College's online courses will be featured on the "Unashamed with the Robertson Family" podcast, hosted by members of the Robertson family of "Duck Dynasty" fame. Beginning August 29, the Robertsons will enroll in Hillsdale's "The Genesis Story" and dedicate the entire Friday episode of their show to discussing what they learned in that week's lecture.

The series, titled "Unashamed Academy Powered by Hillsdale College," will be promoted across "Unashamed" platforms, encouraging listeners to visit UnashamedForHillsdale.com, watch an episode of the course, and join the family to discuss the lecture in their podcast.

"The Robertsons' commitment to faith and family fits well with the mission of Hillsdale College," said Kyle Murnen, chief of staff at Hillsdale College. "This is a good opportunity to bring Hillsdale's teaching into homes across America in a manner that's both personal and meaningful. Through this collaboration, we can recreate one of the most valuable aspects of learning in person, the after-class discussion."

"We're really excited to partner with Hillsdale College on expanding the Unashamed podcast. Their online courses are top-notch, and we can't wait for our listeners to dive into the Word in a new way every Friday," said Unashamed host Zach Dasher.

"Unashamed," which features Jase and Al Robertson, as well as Phil's nephew Zach Dasher, reaches a broad audience with its candid conversations about faith, culture, and life. The series is part of Hillsdale College's continued mission to provide free, high-quality education rooted in the classical liberal arts. Hillsdale's online courses have been taken by more than 3 million learners worldwide, covering topics from American history and the Constitution to literature, economics, and theology.

Further information about the series is available at UnashamedForHillsdale.com.
