Hillsdale College Announces 2026-2027 Fine Arts Events

This year's events include concerts celebrating America's 250th anniversary, Shakespeare's 'Much Ado About Nothing,' and Hillsdale's second biennial playwrighting competition.

HILLSDALE, Mich. — Hillsdale College has released its 2026-2027 Fine Arts Calendar, announcing another year of exhibits, concerts, plays, and other fine arts events open to members of the local community.

This year's events include choir and orchestra concerts celebrating America's 250th anniversary, the Tower Players' production of Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing," and a showcase featuring the finalists in Hillsdale's second biennial playwrighting competition. Hillsdale will also host a variety of other music performances, art exhibits, concerts, and plays featuring Hillsdale students, faculty, and guest artists.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent, nonsectarian, Christian liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 7.5 million.
