Hillsdale College Named Among Nation's Best by The Princeton Review

Hillsdale College received high marks for Most Engaged in Community Service, Happiest Students, and Students Study the Most.

HILLSDALE, Mich. — The Princeton Review again named Hillsdale College among the top 392 institutions of higher education in the country and 150 in the Midwest. The 2027 rankings are based upon a survey of 172,000 students. Hillsdale College also ranked in the top ten in five subcategories and the top 25 in ten subcategories related to academics and student life.

“These rankings reflect the excellence and happiness that mark Hillsdale’s campus,” said Hillsdale College Provost Christopher VanOrman. “At Hillsdale, we encourage diligent study, lively discourse, and genuine friendship in pursuit of the truth, and this culture allows our students to flourish.”

Hillsdale College received high marks for Most Engaged in Community Service, Happiest Students, and Students Study the Most. Hillsdale’s rankings include:

- #2 Most Politically Conservative Students
- #5 Best College Radio Station
- #5 Most Engaged in Community Service
- #6 Most Religious Students
- #16 Pot’s Not Hot
- #16 Their Students Love These Colleges

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent, nonsectarian, Christian liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 7.5 million.
